

Responsibility for reports published by the former Social Exclusion Unit

Title	Date published	Government department now leading on policy area
Truancy and School Exclusion	May 1998	Department for Children, Schools and Families
Rough Sleeping	July 1998	Communities and Local Government
Teenage Pregnancy	June 1999	Department for Children, Schools and Families
Bridging The Gap: New Opportunities For 16 – 18 Year Olds Not In Education, Employment Or Training	July 1999	Department for Children, Schools and Families
A New Commitment to Neighbourhood Renewal: National Strategy Action Plan	January 2001	Communities and Local Government
Reducing Re-offending by Ex-prisoners –	July 2002	Ministry of Justice / National Offender Management Service (NOMS)
Young Runaways	November 2002	Department for Children, Schools and Families
Making the Connections: Final Report on Transport and Social Exclusion	February 2003	Department for Transport
A Better Education for Children in Care	September 2003	Department for Children, Schools and Families
Mental Health and Social Exclusion	June 2004	Department of Health
Breaking the Cycle	September 2004	Social Exclusion Task Force, Cabinet Office

Jobs & Enterprise in Deprived Areas	September 2004	Department for Work and Pensions
Transitions: Young Adults with complex needs	November 2005	Department for Children, Schools and Families
Inclusion Through Innovation: Tackling Social Exclusion Through New Technologies	Autumn 2005	Transformational Government unit, Cabinet Office
A Sure Start for Older People: Ending Inequalities In Later Life	January 2006	Communities and Local Government/ Department for Work and Pensions

September 2007